A Land Use Acknowledgment

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Welcome table on the lawn.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

Anina Minotto

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Listen to your life.

See it for the fathomless mystery that it is.

In the boredom and pain of it no less than in the excitement and gladness:

touch, taste, smell your way to the holy and hidden heart of it because in the last analysis all moments are key moments, and life itself is grace.

— Frederick Buechner (1926–2022)

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

ENTRANCE HYMN "O Day of Radiant Gladness"

Stand — all who are able, as the procession enters the church; everyone sings.

1 O day of ra - diant glad - ness, O day of joy and light,
 2 This day at the cre - a - tion, the light first had its birth;
 3 This day, God's peo - ple meet - ing, the Ho - ly Scrip - ture hear;
 4 That light our hope sus - tain - ing, we walk the pil - grim way,

1 O balm of care and sad - ness, most beau - ti - ful, most bright;
 2 this day for our sal - va - tion Christ rose from depths of earth;
 3 God's liv - ing pres - ence greet - ing, through Bread and Wine made near.
 4 at length our rest at - tain - ing, our end - less Sab - bath day.

1 this day the high and low - ly, through a - ges joined in tune,
 2 this day our Lord vic - to - rious the Spi - rit sent from heaven,
 3 We jour - ney on, be - liev - ing, re - newed with heaven - ly might,
 4 We sing to thee our prais - es. Cre - a - tor, Spi - rit, Son;

1 sing, "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly," to the great God Tri - une.
 2 and thus this day most glo - rious a tri - ple light was given.
 3 from grace more grace re - ceiv - ing on this blest day of light.
 4 the Church her voice up - rais - es to thee, blest Three in One.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

People: And blessed be God's kindom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
 Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing; everyone sings three times.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: O God, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Glenn Orton

A Reading from Isaiah (55:10–13).

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

Expanding our capacity to offer worship in the language of the hearts of our increasingly diverse All Saints community is one of the ways we live into our values of Radical Inclusion and Joyful Spirituality. And a step forward in that journey is including Spanish and Mandarin in our weekly liturgies ... allowing the whole community to be enriched by the gifts of all.

诗篇/SALMO/PSALM 65: 9–14 Remain seated.

Alex Gonzalez

你眷顾大地，降下沛雨，
使土地肥沃富饶。

上帝啊，你使江河涌流不息，
浇灌大地，为世人预备五谷。

你降下甘霖，浇透垄沟，
滋润垄背，使地松软、
长出庄稼。

你赐下丰年福月，
你的脚踪恩泽满溢。

旷野的草地生机盎然，
山岭间充满欢乐， 草场遍布羊群，
谷中长满庄稼， 处处欢歌笑语。

Tú tienes cuidado de la tierra; le envías lluvia y la haces producir; tú, con arroyos caudalosos, haces crecer los trigales.

¡Así preparas el campo!

Tú empapas los surcos de la tierra y nivelas sus terrones; ablandas la tierra con lluvias abundantes y bendices sus productos.

Tú colmas el año de bendiciones, tus nubes derraman abundancia; los pastos del desierto están verdes y los montes se visten de gala; los llanos se cubren de rebaños, los valles se revisten de trigales; ¡todos cantan y gritan de alegría!

You visit the earth and water it abundantly; you make it very plenteous;
the river of God is full of water.

You prepare the grain For so you provide for the earth.

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.

You crown the year with your goodness, and your paths overflow with plenty.

May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, and the hills be clothed with joy.

May the meadows cover themselves with flocks, and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; let them shout for joy and sing.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

LESSON Remain seated.

Terry Moore

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans (8:1–11).

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending the Only Begotten in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law — indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Christ. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then the One who raised Christ from the dead will also bring your mortal bodies to life through the Spirit dwelling in you.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

HYMN "Almighty God, Your Word Is Cast" Standing — all who are able; everyone sings.

GOSPEL Remain standing.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (13:1–9,18–23).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen! Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

A period of silence is observed following the sermon.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Standing — all who are able.

Sarah Nolan

Names of those for whom we continue to pray are on p. 23.

Minister: In peace, we pray to you O God. For all people in their daily life and work;

People: For our families, friends and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Minister: For this community, the nation, and the world;

People: For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Minister: For the just and proper use of your creation;

People: For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Minister: For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People: For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

Minister: We remember those who have asked for our prayers and those who offer their thanksgivings.

Names of those who have requested prayers are read.

Minister: We pray for those who have died and for the families and friends who grieve.

Names of those who have died are read.

Minister: For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

The People may add their own petitions aloud or in the silence of their hearts.

Minister: Loving God, we offer these prayers, knowing that you are doing for those for whom we pray more than we could imagine or desire. Amen.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

ABSOLUTION

Jonathan Stoner

Priest: Almighty God, have mercy on you, forgive all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Jonathan Stoner

Priest: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

Tim Rich

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Mark Chase

The offertory symbolizes the offering of our lives, labor, and gifts to God, reflecting gratitude, stewardship, and participation in Christ's self-giving and service. Oblation bearers bring forward the bread and wine on behalf of the congregation. The ushers will collect of gifts of pledges and offerings. Your pledges and financial gifts support All Saints' mission of transformation, connection and care to one another and our wider community.

All children are invited to come up and stand around the altar.

Mark Chase

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Come to the table with thankful hearts.

People: We open our hearts to God and to one another.

Priest: Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, you are the vibrant energy dancing at the center of the universe! Through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves, to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life.

Priest: And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Remain standing; everyone sings.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: Holy God, known and beyond all knowing, in your image you created us, giving the earth into our care. In our arrogance, we lost touch with the breath of God within us, with the divinity of the creation, unable to perceive its beauty and harmonies. But through Christ, born of a woman, your deep abiding love reclaimed us and realigned us with the grain of the universe.

On that evening in an upper room, with his friends around him, our brother Jesus blessed the bread, broke it, and shared it with all who were gathered: This bread is my body, an offering of God's love for all. When you eat it, remember me.

Priest: Taking the cup of wine, he blessed it and shared it with all who were gathered: This wine is my blood, God's promise of new life for all. When you drink it, remember me.

Priest and People:

God, in the memory of Jesus who healed people and washed his disciples' feet, who loved children and honored outcasts, who fed people and turned water into wine, who died and rose to new and unending life, we ask that you breathe on this bread and this wine, filling them with the transforming power of the cosmic Christ.

Breathe through us, God, that our bodies, minds, and spirits may be filled with your life-giving presence. Make us again a holy people, strongly bound to you, firmly rooted in the earth, with eyes to see all life as sacred. Empower us to spread the light of Christ in our wondrous and confusing world. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Children in the chancel rejoin their families. Parents and caregivers, please meet your child in the transepts (either side of the Altar rail) and return together to your seats.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request on the back side rails.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org or abaughman@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

Members of our Healing Ministry are available in the Chapel during communion for all who wish to receive prayers and the laying on of hands. All prayers are kept confidential. If you desire follow-up, please contact our pastoral care department.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Mark Chase

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

HYMN "God of Grace and God of Glory" Standing –all who are able; everyone sings.

1 God of grace and God of glo - ry, on thy peo - ple pour thy power;
 2 Lo! the hosts of e - vil round us scorn thy Christ, as - sail his ways!
 3 Cure thy chil - dren's war - ring mad - ness, bend our pride to thy con - trol;
 4 Save us from weak res - ig - na - tion to the e - vils we de - plore:

crown thine an - cient Church-'s sto - ry; bring her bud to glo - rious flower.
 From the fears that long have bound us free our hearts to faith and praise:
 shame our wan - ton, self - ish glad - ness, rich in things and poor in soul.
 let the gift of thy sal - va - tion be our glo - ry ev - er - more.

Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, for the fac - ing of this grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, for the liv - ing of these Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, lest we miss thy king - dom's Grant us wis - dom, grant us cour - age, serv - ing thee whom we a - hour, for the fac - ing of this hour.

 days, for the liv - ing of these days.
 goal, lest we miss thy king - dom's goal.
 dore, serv - ing thee whom we a - dore.

A Story Still Being Written: All Saints, Kenya, and the Power of Partnership with Grace Dyrness and Pat O'Reilly

What happens when you are 60+ years old and you hear a Kenyan Bishop speak about the challenging situation of children with spinal bifida, cerebral palsy and other disabilities within his Diocese? Well, you just pack up and go! Percia Hutcherson, a member of Christ the Good Shepherd, Leimert Park, heard this as a call from God and responded by moving to Eldoret, Western Kenya, and establishing a rehabilitation center for treatment of these children. Children with these disabilities are often abandoned, or almost worse, left in back rooms, tied up, and in other ways shunned. But Percia began to make a difference! Come hear about how her legacy lives on in Eldoret. The Rev. Canon Patricia O'Riley and Dr. Grace Dyrness will share this remarkable story and challenge us all to be attuned to God's calling in our lives.

Berlin's Wound: a Coverup, an Open Sore, or a Healing Scar with Laura Krauss

The Rev. Dr. Laura Krauss will share the story of her documentary photographic essay, Berlin's Wound: a Coverup, an Open Sore, or a Healing Scar. Krauss spent a year in Berlin, Germany and undertook a walking pilgrimage — thirty-five years after the demolition of the Berlin Wall. Her 100-mile Berliner Mauerweg trek in search of insights to how the notorious former border is now being utilized by individuals, a community, and as an international symbol is an opportunity for both education and inspiration.

Programs for Children (Birth – 5th grade) at All Saints:

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants Through Preschoolers 9:00–11:30 a.m.

Child Care is available for children birth-preschoolers (5 yrs.) in the Learning Center upstairs in Regas House from 9:00 –11:30 a.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out.

Our childcare will be taking a pause this summer as our staff take some time off and we reset for fall. We will be closed from July 19–August 16. During this time, families are invited to utilize the expanded Family Worship Rug in the Chapel, the Family Room in Regas House which will livestream the service, or the outdoor worship space. If you have questions, please reach out to Amanda Baughman at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org

Children’s Chapel During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited (after the gospel reading) to attend, which invites children to enter into our sacred stories, respecting their innate spirituality, and encourages them to use their curiosity and imagination to experience the mystery and joy of God.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Programs for Youth (6th – 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program All youth in grades 6–12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It’s a great opportunity to serve our church and our community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you’ll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you’ll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!

Youth Dinners will resume Wednesday, September 9, from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade We will meet every Wednesday beginning in September. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m., beginning Sept. 9.

Offerings Online

Women's Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney's A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year A. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week's scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney's notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

Tuesday, July 14, 7:00–8:30 p.m., in the Regas House Lobby

The Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month. We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer.

All Saints Church Creative Writing Group

Thursday, July 16, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m., in the Guild Room

The All Saints Writers Group brings writers from different walks of life together to discuss their pieces in a workshop-style setting. In this small group, writers are able to read their work in any genre they choose (memoir, creative nonfiction, poetry, novel, short story, etc.), and all can give feedback to, and hear suggestions from, the other writers in the room.

This builds a sense of community, and helps the writers to become more confident in their work.

We meet every other Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Bernice Fong facilitates. Be assured: whoever you are, and whatever you write, there is a place for you here!

Celebrate the Ministry of Keith Holeman

Sunday, July 19, following the 10:00 a.m. service, in the Learning Center

For the past 21 years Keith Holeman has journeyed with us at All Saints, so beautifully chronicling our corporate life and being a pastoral presence to so many. On July 19 he will retire as our Director of Communications.

“My job has never been just a job. I’ve loved the work, loved the place, and loved the people I’ve worked with, and I have loved being able to serve the congregation – it has all been worship for me. There have been times when I couldn’t tell if my cameras were in focus because my eyes had suddenly misted over with the power of the music, the preaching, or the recognition of a parishioner who had brought heaven to earth by helping those in need out beyond our doors.”

—Keith Holeman

Join us in honoring Keith and celebrating his well-deserved retirement!
Please stick around after the 10:00 a.m. service for festive food, fellowship, and fun.

LA Day of Mindfulness

In the tradition of Thich Nhat Hanh, with Deer Park Monastics

Saturday, July 25, 8:00 a.m. –3:30 p.m., at All Saints

SoCal-based sanghas and Deer Park monastics warmly invite all sangha members and friends to come together for a day of practice. Due to popular demand, our Children’s Program has reached its capacity. If you would like to be placed on the waiting list for the program you may indicate your interest when you reserve a spot and check out. If available, the program will provide for children 9 years old and younger during a portion of the morning schedule. Children 5 years old and younger will require caregiver supervision at all times.

To attend, Please register here.

We expect a large turnout so we would appreciate your help on the day of the event.

If you would like to volunteer, please sign up here.

Newcomers Coffee

Sunday, August 2

Meet in the Chapel immediately following the 10 a.m. service.

Please join other newcomers and meet staff and greeters, ask more questions, have a cup of coffee and learn how to get connected!

Celebrate a Special Event or Loved One with Flowers for the Altar!

Altar flowers are a beautiful way to remember a loved one, celebrate a special event, or to give thanks for someone who has touched your life.

To provide flowers for the altars, please contact Gary Leonard at tofr@pacbell.net.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

Information = Grace Chung, Associate Organist-Choirmaster at gchung@allsaints-pas.org.

You Are Invited to Bring the Oblations to the Altar!

Consider bringing the bread and wine up the aisle for communion at the 10:00 a.m. service. For your birthday, anniversary, or in memory of a loved one — or any Sunday. You may do this with your family, a partner or be paired with someone else. If you are not able to walk up the steps to the altar, the staff will come to you!

To sign up or for more information, please contact Marianne Ryan at marianneryan1014@gmail.com.

Ushers Needed!

Ushering at All Saints is a team effort and fun especially for those who enjoy meeting new people and/or get antsy sitting still for more than 10 min. The commitment is to serve one service a month at one of our services plus about 6 special assignments throughout the year for evening and Festival services. We would love to add you to the team! Contact Melissa Hayes, mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Become a Greeter!

Are you looking for a fun opportunity to be more involved on Sundays? Be the face of radical welcome to all who come to All Saints by joining a Greeters team. Teams are forming now and commitment is as little as one Sunday a month.

For more information, contact ministry lead Ben Martin brmusc@gmail.com.

ASC Talks in August 9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room

Just as a TED Talk is a short, focused presentation designed to share an idea, insight or story, an ASC Talk offers the opportunity to hear a diversity of ideas, insights and stories represented by some of the saints who make up All Saints Church. This summer series of presentations in the Guild Room during our 9:00 a.m. Faith & Formation hour will range from art, poetry and meditation to global outreach and the art of aging. Spend some time this summer in community learning from and with fellow ASC parishioners as we continue the work of becoming Beloved Community – one story at a time.

August 2

Art and Academic Freedom: Tracking Christian Nationalism

with Mike Hernandez

Artists Astri Swendsrud and Elana Mann join Mike Hernandez for a conversation about art, faith, academic freedom, and the growing influence of Christian nationalism in higher education. Drawing on their recent experiences with Christian universities, they will explore how artists, educators, and faith communities can respond creatively and faithfully to challenges facing free expression and democratic culture.

Can We Prevent Dementia?

What the Latest Science Tells Us

with Nicole Gatto

Dementia touches the lives of over 7 million older adults in the US today, a number which is expected to grow over the next three decades. Fortunately, we have new, promising evidence about dementia prevention, intervention, and care, providing hope for families impacted by dementia.

In this presentation, we will break down the latest Lancet Commission report which identifies 14 potentially modifiable dementia risk factors. By understanding these factors, we can strive to do more to protect brain health as well as help individuals and their families living with dementia.

August 16

Poetry Hour and Open Mic

with Tony Rivera and Monique Thomas

Join us for a time of poetry and an Open Mic session led by All Saint's very own poets, Tony Rivera and Monique Thomas. You won't want to miss this moment as we engage the art of the spoken word to practice Joyful Spirituality. Sign ups for open mic will be limited so please arrive promptly to put your name on the list.

August 23

Queerness, Community, and the Great Outdoors

with Luca DiMassa

Local high schooler and All Saints vestry member Luca DiMassa will explore how we create communities outdoors, both between humans and as a part of the greater ecosystem. Tracing a lifelong love of adventure, a history of Scouting and camping, and a deep curiosity in the interspecies relationships around us, Luca will paint an image of how the great outdoors force all of us together, and how we find God's love from there. In addition, the talk will focus on the queerness of the world: sexual and gender queerness in animals and humans, but also how queerness can work as a mindset to reconsider our capitalistic relationship to nature, and why we should all strive to have a queer relationship with the outdoors.

August 30

Experience the Mysterious and Transformative Healing of Meditation

with Betty Cole

Join our Monday Night Meditation leader, Betty Cole, for a calming session designed to open us up to the unknown depths of healing. The Great Silence confirms the mysterious healing power of the Spirit. Life moves fast, and it is easy to feel disconnected from our inner peace and the presence of the Divine. If you are looking for a quiet space to recharge, reflect, and restore your soul, we invite you to join us this week. All are welcome.

KIMBERLÉ WILLIAMS CRENSHAW AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Tuesday Evening, July 21 | 7-9pm

In the Church

We are thrilled to welcome to the All Saints Forum Series Kimberlé Williams Crenshaw -- pioneering legal scholar, movement leader and fearless advocate who changed the way the world thinks about race and gender.

In Backtalker -- her New York Times bestseller -- she offers an intimate look at how her personal life informed her journey to becoming an architect intersectionality and Critical Race Theory: two of the biggest ideas to reshape the global discourse on race, gender and democracy.

As Dr. Crenshaw's work -- and that of so many other scholars, activists and artists -- faces erasure at the hands of the current administration, Backtalker offers not a story of lost hope but a testimony to a lived experience that can serve as an inspiration to backtalkers everywhere, offering lessons in how we must understand the past to chart a course for our future.

All Saints Church, 132 North Euclid Avenue, Pasadena CA
